

GENOCIDE DEFINITION

In 1948, the United Nations defined genocide as any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnic, racial, or religious group, including

- killing members of the group

- causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group

- deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part

- imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group

- forcibly transferring children of the group to another group
